Dear Scott,

I want to personally thank you for another successful forum retreat with you as our forum facilitator. Your passion for business/life coaching is infectious. I appreciate your approach of not trying to problem solve, but providing tools, options and different perspectives enabling me to solve those issues myself. There is no doubt that this is one of your callings.

Again, thank you for bringing your "A Game" and giving 100%. You were instrumental in making our forum retreat a success!

Sincerely,
